Rabbi's Message

Of the three major Festivals in Judaism, Shavuot is probably the least familiar. It never enjoyed the popularity of either Passover or Sukkot. But, in many ways, it is the most significant of all. It celebrates our raison d'être...the receiving of Torah...our tradition. Shavuot will be celebrated on May 15th this year. Shavuot began as a harvest festival, but religiously it commemorates the revelation at Sinai. We often understand revelation as a singular event in our people's history. But what if we changed the tense and removed the word "singular" replacing it with the word "ongoing". Revelation is an ongoing event in our people's history. Revelation can be viewed as a never-ending exploration of the things that ought to be most important to us.

The experience which began at Sinai and continues through today reminds us that we were presented with a thread which can run through our many and varied stories...a thread of Torah which binds them all together into a meaningful anthology...that which we call our lives.

Following the celebration of Shavuot, our lives move into a different rhythm. Our congregational calendar relaxes. Summer is on the way. Yes, our services continue. Our committees continue. However, many of our programs take a break. Our auxiliaries have concluded their major programming. Come summer, many congregants go away on vacations.

Such change gives us pause to reflect. Much has happened in our lives during this past season. As your rabbi, I have been privileged to share in so many of those moments: holding a new baby, listening to tales of turmoil and joy, celebrating times of growth and gratitude, sharing in learning. Each of these events—part of our lives together—make up a unique story.

As we celebrate Shavu'ot, as we applaud our graduates, as we rejoice with our brides and our grooms, as we console those who mourn, may we be aware always of the stories we are writing. Let us not be so concerned about how they will end. Rather, let us be content with the knowledge that the story has begun. And wherever our stories take us, may we keep the thread of Torah running throughout—both as guide and guardian.

Hag Same'ach.....Good Yontuf.

President's Message

Dear Temple Sinai Congregants,

May is here and hopefully spring will stay to rejuvenate our spirits and our souls. May will be a busy month at Temple Sinai and I hope many of you can participate in the variety of programs and worship services. We are so full of activities that Mitzvah Day is sharing the building with the Sisterhood Rummage Sale on May 5th. After you clean out your basements and attics and bring items for the rummage sale, stay for the bargains and then join the Temple Sinai team of walkers for the FoodShare Walk against Hunger.

As you know, May 19th will be our Annual Meeting this year. I hope this change in date will be more convenient for many of you and I encourage you to attend this important event. I am very excited about our slate of officers as well as having the opportunity to share highlights of the past year with our members. Please join us at 9 for a continental breakfast and call Joyce in the office if you will need babysitting for children who are not in Religious School.

May is also a time for many special services. Please check the front page of this bulletin for details and dates. The Confirmation and Youth Group services are always meaningful and we will celebrate Shavuot in between. I hope you can also join us for the service on May 24th when the board of trustees will be installed.

I have mentioned our new website in the past and I hope many of you have had a chance to visit it. Please send your comments, suggestions for changes, etc. to webmaster@sinaict.org. Our website committee wants this to be a place that is helpful both to our membership and others visiting the site to find out about Temple Sinai.

Many of us were fortunate to enjoy the wonderful Shabbat dinner on April 12th that was planned and presented by Ann Speyer and other Sisterhood volunteers. The Temple board will be meeting in June to plan dinners for the coming year which should be events also worth attending. It is an opportunity for members of all ages to come together and celebrate Shabbat as a Temple family.

b'Shalom,

Carol Benjamin, President

Foodshare's Walk Against Hunger—Sunday, May 5

At this time of year, it seems that there is always an abundance of holidays and food. From Tu B'Shevat to Purim to Pesach, there are delights aplenty. But, in our midst, many are still starving, often through no fault of their own. In times of need, these persons reach out to FoodShare and the agencies it helps. Once again, Foodshare is asking for our help. On May 5, Temple Sinai will participate in the Annual Walk Against Hunger. If you can walk with us, or support our team, it will go a long way toward helping our less fortunate neighbors. You can register for the walk or donate online at www.foodshare.org. For those of you who are technologically challenged, you can drop off a contribution at the Temple Office or meet with us at the Temple prior to the walk on May 5.

Alan Cohen, Temple Sinai's Captain,
Walk Against Hunger

Religious School News

The school year is flying by so fast! May is the closing month of our Religious School year and we are busy with activities until our last day on May 19th.

On Friday evening, May 3rd, the 4th grade class is participating in the Shabbat service which starts promptly at 6pm. The teachers and students are excited to make this a special and meaningful service.

On Wednesday night, May 1st from 6:30-7:30pm the Jewish War Veterans will present three awards to the 6th grade winners of an essay contest entitled, "What does Memorial Day Mean To Me?" This is a wonderful program as the members of the Jewish War Veterans introduce themselves to our students and then listen as the award winning essays are read aloud.

Our Confirmation Service, which is always very special, is on Friday night, May 10th at 6pm. Stephanie Greer, Gabriella Silverman, Robert Silverman, Erica Thureson and Sarah Walters have created a very meaningful service for their Confirmation. The always energetic and joyous Youth Group Service is on Friday evening, May 17th at 6pm. Please mark your calendars and enjoy these special Shabbat services at Temple Sinai.

Another school year meets its conclusion. We had a wonderful faculty of dedicated and enthusiastic teachers who created a warm, welcoming and nurturing environment where students learned about our rich traditions and history. Teachers worked well with students with varied learning styles and used different techniques to ensure that learning was productive for all students. We thank our teachers and our student assistants for their commitment to Jewish education.

We had many special programs throughout the year that enhanced our Religious School curriculum. We try to integrate formal and informal education to meet the needs of our students that offer experiential learning opportunities.

Our Religious School continues to grow! I will be busy in the coming months planning for the next school year; book orders, class assignments, hiring faculty, etc. In order to do so, it is important that you return your school registration by July 12th. First semester tuition and book fees will be due with your registration form. You will find the registration form along with the parking lot supervision sign up in your June White & Katzman bill. If you do not receive the form, please call Joyce at the Temple office at 860/561-1055. There is $60 late fee if we don't have your form and check by July 12th. Your temple account must be in good standing for your children to return in the fall. If you need to speak with someone regarding your account please call the temple office. Enrollment for Religious School and the High Holy day tickets will be processed for those whose accounts are up-to-date.

A big Todah Rabah (thank you) to all parents for your continued support, commitment and involvement in our Religious School. Our goal of fostering both friendship and learning in our classrooms has been achieved. Your comments and concerns, which are always encouraged, help to improve our school. You can always reach me at home in the evenings 860/233-5027 or by e-mail at director_of_education@sinaict.org. Religious school opens on Sun. Sept. 8th and Wed. Sept. My wishes to everyone for a healthy and relaxing summer.

l'Shalom,

Rena Citron, Director of Education

Temple Sinai Trip Planned for Israel

A congregational Israel trip is planned for fall, 2013. The trip will take place Oct. 20-31, 2013 led by Rabbi Bennett. There has been a great deal of interest in the trip. We will explore all facets and wonderful sites of Israel. This will be a trip of a lifetime. The approximate cost is $3500 per person, double occupancy.

The trip will include highlights such as a visit to Independence Hall, the Palmach Museum in Tel Aviv and a walk in Old Jaffa. In Haifa, we will go atop Mt. Carmel to view the beautiful Bahai Gardens and then continue to the Galilee. There will be time to visit the shores of the Sea of Galilee in Tiberias and take a Cruise on the Kinneret. We plan to visit the mystical City of Safed. We also plan to visit the Jordan Valley and Jerusalem's Old City. ... there are many other highlights! If you would like to be on this fun-filled trip with the congregation, please call Joyce at the temple office, 860/561-1055 for the full itinerary.

Union for Reform Judaism (URJ) Resources for Temple Members

The URJ offers a wealth of information to temple members. The website is updated frequently. Visit www.urj.org. For Torah study, a one page commentary on the Torah portion of the week, click on Quick Links, Torah Portion. For other topics, click at the top of the page on Resources such as:

Social Action News

The Social Action Committee would like to extend our sincere gratitude to the congregation for your support this year in acts of Mitzvot. We are appreciative of the generosity of our Temple Sinai community.

Mitzvah Day and the Foodshare Walk Against Hunger is Sunday, May 5. There will be a display of the mitzvah projects that have been done throughout the year prior to the walk. Knitzvah will also be meeting May 5th. We will be meeting at 11:30 a.m. for lunch and then going as a group to the walk site. If you have not already signed up for the walk, please sign up at www.foodshare.org on team Temple Sinai. Additionally, please solicit donations from friends, family, and colleagues. Our goal is $3,000.

We recently reached out to our congregation for Foodshare volunteers to pick up food from grocery stores and bring the food to local shelters on a weekly or monthly basis. The April training was postponed, and we are working with Foodshare to obtain a new date in June. More information will be forthcoming.

We are continuing volunteering at the Mercy Shelter preparing and serving dinner. The following Sundays are available for 2013. Please contact Bethany Astachan at Bethany@xvivo.net for more information. The 2013 dates are June 16, July 7, August 11, November 10. As always we look forward to suggestions and comments. Our next meeting is Tuesday, June 4 at 7:00 p.m.

Play Ball!

It's that time of year. The temple softball season will be starting soon. Games are on Sunday mornings at 10:00 a.m. from June-August. This is a non-competitive, co-ed league. You must be at least 16 to play. Everyone that comes will play. You don't need to commit to ever Sunday, you only need to commit to having fun. Please contact Mark Feivelson at 860/589-2099 or email him at mfeivelson@gmail.com if you are interested.

The Jewish Historical Society of Greater Hartford invites you to "Back to the Old Neighborhoods" Bus Tour date: May 5

You are invited to join the JHSGH on a tour through the old neighborhoods of Hartford which will cover downtown and the city's north end. Two tours are offered; one at 9:30 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m. The tour is 3 hours.

Cost is $24 per person for Society members; $28 for non-members.

A comfortable coach bus leaves from and returns to the Society's office, 333 Bloomfield Ave., W. Hartford.

To make your reservation, or for more information, go to the Society's website: www.jhsg.org, or call Bea Brodie at 860/727-6170.

NUTSY News (Newington United Temple Sinai Youth)

As our school year is beginning to come to a close, youth events at Temple Sinai are still in full swing! Late in March, members of NUTSY, our senior youth group, gathered together in our fantastic youth lounge for an evening spent hanging out with the Young Israeli Emissaries, Yuval and Ido, over pizza and cookies. Later that week, just before the start of Passover, NUTSY members joined members of GRSLY, the youth group at Congregation Kol Haverim in Glastonbury, for their annual chocolate seder! Participants were able to stuff themselves full of chocolate while participating in a silly and fun replica of the traditional Passover seder. It is always wonderful when our youth group is able to spend time with other youth groups in surrounding areas!

In this spirit, NUTSY is busy planning our end of the year youth service, which will take place on Friday, May 17th, to which all Temple Sinai members are invited. Temple Sinai will also be host to members from various NFTY Northeast youth groups semiformal dance, dinner, and shul-in for all participants in grades 8-12. On Sunday, May 19, Temple Sinai's Junior Youth Group, which is open to members in grades 5-7, will have their end of the year event at Laser Quest in Newington. Please contact me at temple or by email if you have any questions about the end of the year youth programming!

Please check out the attached calendar of events!

B'Shalom,

SISTERHOOD SPEAKS . . .

For several months I've called this column "Sisterhood Speaks," but for today I want to rename it "Sisterhood Shouts Out!"

The first shout out goes to the seventy Temple Sinai congregants who decided to sign up for the April 12th Shabbat dinner — to come out whether it was rainy, cold, dark, etc., whether they were busy, tired or the thousand other things that keep us apart from each other. We came together for a wonderful, sharing, caring, evening. With the Rabbi and Cantor leading, we chanted the Shabbat blessings together, sang about Shabbat's angels of peace, and then enjoyed the food and friendship of a special evening.

The next shout out goes to the Sisterhood women who created the dinner. They peeled, boiled, stirred, scraped, chopped and prepared carrots, noodle kugel, a vegetarian pasta dish, cakes, strawberries, salads. They baked and roasted, sliced and plated the dinner so that its presentation was classy and smooth. They set tables, staffed the door and helped with clean up afterwards. So, from all of us who enjoyed, here goes the shout out to: Myra Wishnick and Jane Roth, Sue Austin, Carol Benjamin, Estelle Gonsalves, Maxanne Kass, Carol Kolp, Beth Laites, Becky Levin, Raquel Levin, Nina Miller, Joni Peterson, Joan Skydel, Gail Slusarski, Nancy Wineburgh and Madelaine White. A shout out, as well, to the husbands of several Sisterhood members who helped with serving or clean up. It was a pleasure to work with such an energetic, positive, capable group! And didn't we have a good time doing it!

The third shout out goes to Rabbi Bennett and Cantor Gordon for leading the prayers and songs. They brought us in touch with the traditions of our families and friends over the generations who have thus welcomed Shabbat and the special time it offers us each week. Thanks to Joyce Sturm for helping with the reservation process and to Aurel Mucka for helping with set up and clean up after the dinner.

Finally, this would not be complete without a shout out to my two Shabbat Dinner Committee Chairs: Jane Roth for ordering and delivering the chicken and challahs, and Myra Wishnick for planning, organizing and shopping for this dinner with me. My thanks to you both!

I was wonderful seeing everyone together at the dinner. Hope to see you, and many more, at the next one!

L'Shalom,

Ann Speyer, Sisterhood President

Sisterhood May Pot Luck Dinner
"Woman Working in Different Ways"

The Sisterhood Pot luck Annual Meeting will take place on Thursday, May 23 at 6:30 p.m. The Annual Meeting will begin with a Pot Luck Dinner and a short business meeting, and then proceed to the speakers of the evening. The topic for our meeting will be a panel discussion of "Women, Working in Different Ways". Speakers will be three women who are working in non-traditional careers. Sgt. Ellen White, the first female Sargeant with the Bloomfield Police Dept., Engineer Jonna Gerken and our own Cantor Donna Gordon. We look forward to their talking about why they moved into traditionally male fields and what they experienced when they got there.

Unless you have a special dish you wish to share, we will divide the dinner dishes alphabetically, by last name. A to G, please bring salads; H to S, please bring main courses; T to Z, please bring desserts. Please RSVP by May 20th to sisterhood@sinaict.org or inform the Sisterhood member who calls from the phone tree. This should be a very fine evening of good food and interesting discussion! See you there!

June Planting Day

Do you enjoy seeing flowers when you arrive at the temple? Would you like to help create a new garden of pretty blooms? Planting day will be Sunday morning, June 2.

If you are interested in creating a flower strip, along the driveway, next to the south wall of the Temple, please email me at sisterhood@sinaict.org or call Joyce and leave a message with her. We are looking for donations of perennials as well as to dig and plant. Donations can either be from a store or from your own, possibly overgrown, garden.

We are thinking of: spring blooms — hosta lilies and then have wonderful green and variegated foliage; summer and fall blooms — rudbeckia goldsturm, aka black eyed suzies; mums — winter hardy varieties, preferably yellow, red, white.

Please watch your email for updates on this project. If we don't get enough younger volunteers, we may not be able to go ahead with this project. We hope to hear from enough people to begin planting this strip and making it bloom!

Sisterhood Calendar for 5774/2013-2014

We are beginning to work on the sisterhood Calendar for 5774 covering the months of September, 2013 to August, 2014. If you wish to add or delete listings (birthdays, anniversaries, memorials), please contact Ann Speyer at sisterhood@sinaict.org or call 860/561-1055.

The Sisterhood calendar is a wonderful way to be in touch with members of Temple Sinai. The cost of the calendar will be $7.00. If you would like to list your special dates, a listing costs $.50 for each listing. Where else can you find such a bargain!

Help Sisterhood Go Green!

Please consider receiving your Sisterhood bills (calendar, dues, New Year greeting, tributes) via email, Sisterhood_financial_secretary@sinaict.org. It's good for the planet and helps to keep expenses down.

Beth Laites, Financial Secretary

The annual Memorial Book letter and form is enclosed with this bulletin. If you are keeping your listing the same, there is no need to return the form. If you are making changes, please complete the form on the bottom of the letter and return it to me by August 1st.

As in past years, High Holy Day tickets will be mailed to those whose temple accounts are in good standing. If you wish to purchase additional tickets for you family members, the price will remain the same at $150 each ticket. The High Holy Day ticket packets will be mailed the week of July 29. If you would like to participate in this project, please let me know by phone at 860/561-1055 or email: tsinai@snet.net.

The Social Action Committee will once again be working on the Foodshare collection of contributions of donations and non-perishable food. Ken Speyer has chaired this for many years and will do so again for us this year. If you would like to volunteer for the Foodshare drive, please contact Ken at 860/229-1075.

Finally, the schedule for the July & August summer Shabbat services is located at the bottom of the June calendar.

Best wishes to everyone for a relaxing, enjoyable, happy and healthy summer.

b'Shalom,
 Joyce L. Sturm,
 Temple Administrator

In the Hospital or sick at home??
RABBI BENNETT WANTS TO KNOW... Please call the temple office if you or a member of the family are in the hospital or sick at home, so Rabbi Bennett can visit. The HIPAA laws do not allow clergy to learn any information about our congregants who are patients in the hospital. We are no longer being called when our members are admitted. Please call the temple office if you are ill or know of any temple members who are ill.

September Bulletin Deadline—August 12, 2013

Feast of Sinai: The Cookbook!
Makes a great hostess gift
 Looking for a new brisket recipe? How about a housewarming gift Or a shower gift? The Feast of Sinai Cookbooks are available for $14 each or 3/$36. Call the temple office, 860/561-1055.

Books-By-Mail
 The Lucy Robbins Welles Library is offering Books-By-Mail to those Newington residents who are homebound. Call Jeanette Francini, Program Manager for information: 860/665-8700.

Even during the current economic downturn, there may be stocks, bonds or mutual funds in your portfolio that have appreciated in value. If you donate the securities directly to the temple, rather than selling them, you can avoid capital gains tax and get a deduction for the full value of the shares if you itemize. To qualify, you must have owned the security for more than a year. Call the temple office if you want to do this. Phone: 860/561-1055. You can also contact David Klein, Temple Sinai VP of Investment, at investment_committee@sinaict.org

Farm Fresh Organic Vegetables
 Adamah is a Jewish educational farm in Falls Village, CT. Members receive weekly (or bi-weekly) deliveries of freshly picked certified organic vegetables from June-November. Kosher specialties are pickled and dairy food and flowers are also available. Jewish Local Greens is part of the CSA (Community Supported Agriculture) system, which shortens the distance from farm to table. With a secure market for their harvest, farmers are able to focus on growing great food and caring for the land. Members of Adamah belong to a variety of congregations. Membership is open to everyone. If you would like additional membership information, visit the website: www.jewishlocalgreens.wordpress.com or write to whcsall@gmail.com

Prayerbook Dedication

You may donate a new Mishkan T'Filah in honor of a simcha or in memory of a loved one. Call the temple office to dedicate a new prayerbook. Each dedicated book will be bookplated with your dedication. Cost is $36.00.

About Our Circle of Giving Program

Temple Sinai, our special community thrives from the generosity of our members. Every members contributions, contribute to its well-being. Your support is the basis for the programs that enable study (Torah) worship (avodah) and acts of loving kindness (gemilut hasadim).

Consistent with our Jewish tradition of members contributing in accordance with one's means, we ask our members to voluntarily increase their annual commitment to the temple. We instituted the "Circle of Giving" program in order to help ensure Temple Sinai's vitality and strength. Contact the Temple office for information on the Circle of Giving Program.

TEMPLE SINAI

May, 2013

Dear Friends,

A memorable experience of the approaching High Holy Days is Temple Sinai's Yom Kippur tradition of remembering our departed loved ones through our Memorial Book.

As before, this book will be inscribed with the names of the deceased (and those who have memorialized them) and will be available to each worshipper on Yom Kippur.

Although it is the practice at the Yizkor service to recite only the names of those who have died in the past year, by the issuance of this Memorial Book or remembrance, the names of all the departed are brought to mind with reverence and dignity.

If you had a listing(s) in last year's Memorial Book, we plan to include your remembrance again this year and bill you at $15.00 per name remembered per family unless we are requested to make a change. Self-supporting family members over 21 years of age should consider a separate listing. If you wish to include a new listing, delete a listing or change an existing one, please do so in the space provided below and return it to the Temple office by August 1st (Yom Kippur is September 14th – Tishri 10, 5774).

Sincerely,

Joyce
