Rabbi's Message

The High Holy Days are a wonderful time. Our being together as a congregation during the Days of Awe is always one of the most powerful and moving experiences we all feel. I want to express my appreciation to our congregational family for helping to create such a highly spiritual atmosphere in which we were all able to confront ourselves and pledge to make the coming year a year of meaning and purpose.

And while the High Holy Days are almost over, they are, in actuality, not completely over! What we accomplished and what we promised for ourselves is just a beginning. It is now the time to roll up our sleeves and put our prayers and promises to work.

A good way to begin is to celebrate the holidays, Sukkot and Simhat Torah. They are the holidays of "doing". It is no accident that the calendar has Sukkot and Simhat Torah follow so closely on the heels of the High Holy Days. While the High Holidays were the Days of Awe and contemplation, Sukkot and Simhat Torah are days of activity and action.

The sukkah is a wonderful symbol in our tradition. It is a symbol of divine protection and, at the same time, of uncertainty. The sukkah is not sturdy and doesn't protect us from the elements. The sukkah reminds us that life is full of vulnerability and what happens to us in life is not always under our control. Although we have been working hard during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur to mend our ways and to start the new year on the right foot, Sukkot reminds us that life is fragile. But the sukkah also represents the beauty and blessings we bring to life to strengthen that fragility. And Simhat Torah celebrates the continuity of Torah and our heritage.

Sukkot and Simhat Torah are a time of thanksgiving. Let us be thankful for our families, both personal and communal. Let us be thankful for the strength we get from each other.

Wishing you and your families a Hag Same'ach, a healthy and happy holiday season with a vibrant and meaningful new beginning.

Rabbi Jeffrey Bennett

President's Message

Dear Temple Sinai Members,

As you read this bulletin, we will be celebrating a most important time in our calendar – The Days of Awe framed by Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. It is not only a time to reflect on the past and plan for the future, but also to meet and greet each other. I look forward to seeing you both at Conard and Temple Sinai to wish you and your family a happy, healthy, and peaceful New Year.

And speaking of new years, the Welcome and Welcome Back Shabbat on September 5th was an amazing event. Over 200 adults and children were in attendance to pray, sing, and of course enjoy dinner together after the service. Many thanks to our Membership committee for another successful event! Sunday morning, September 7th marked the first day of Religious School and a record number of students were welcomed by their teachers and student aides. Kudos to our Religious School Director, Rena Citron, who works so hard to ensure that every detail is taken care of so that the first day and every day is meaningful to our students. We are also excited to have a new pre-K program which is open to non-members as well. There are openings in this class, so please pass the word to your friends and neighbors.

Also on September 7th our Board of Trustees met to plan our goals for the coming year. We chose “Lifelong Learning” as our theme for the year and have broken this down into groups – Religious School, Teens, and Adults. As we develop our objectives, we will share our plans with you.

I am repeating my “pitch” from last month – asking you to consider housing teens who will be attending the NFTY regional Conclavette at Temple Sinai November 14-16. I guarantee you will gain more than you give by having these amazing young people share your home for the weekend. If you cannot house teens, there are many other ways to volunteer for this event. I am sure Mitzi Young, our Youth Director, has provided details in this bulletin and I know I can count on our congregation to give a huge welcome to this group as we have in the past.

I want to extend a special welcome to the families who have joined Temple Sinai in the past few months. I assume you decided to make our congregation your spiritual home because of a variety of reasons, but most of all, I hope you find us to be a warm, welcoming community. I also hope that you will find ways to become involved and I am happy to help you in this area if needed.

L'Shana Tova,

Carol Benjamin, President

Religious School News

Hinei Matov Umanayim Shevet Achim B'yachad!

How wonderful for all of us—students, parents, teens, teachers—to be together for another year at Temple Sinai Religious School! Our classrooms are, once again, filled with enthusiastic students and teachers. Singing fills our school! Our school is very lively with close to 150 students, which includes 28 new students this year. Welcome to our returning and new families! We have a teaching staff of 16 teachers and 21 teen assistants. Teaching about our holidays of Rosh Hashana, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah make the first few months of Religious School very busy. On October 5th, parents are invited to a curriculum meeting at 9:30 a.m. in the Multipurpose Room. I will discuss the curriculum, school policies and answer questions. Parents will have the opportunity to visit the classrooms and meet the teachers. Please gather in the Multipurpose Room at 9:00 a.m. to schmooze and socialize. The formal part of the meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m.

School is closed on October 12th for Columbus day weekend. A very special program for parents and students in grades 6 & 7 will be held on Sunday, October 19th from 9:30-11:30 a.m. The Looking In Theatre is a theatre group composed of teenagers from the Greater Hartford area who present dramatic scenes dealing with important social, family and personal issues such as drugs, alcohol, sexuality, depression, suicide, abuse and how these issue affect adolescents. Actors/teens are trained in the above issues. Audience participation is encouraged. Because of the sensitive nature of this program, it is mandatory for parents to accompany their children to the program. These topics open important communication and discussion in the classrooms and at home. Please mark you calendars and plan to attend.

As always, please contact me with any suggestions and/or concerns as they may arise.

Wishing everyone a Shana Tova,
Rena Citron, Director of Education

Adult Education News

Adult Education has two notable upcoming events:

Friday, November 21st—book discussion following the 6:00 p.m. service. We will discuss My Promised Land by Ari Shavit. This is New York Times bestseller and was named one of the Best Books of the Year by the Times and The Economist. It won the Natan Book Award, the National Jewish Book Award, and the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award.

“My Promised Land” is an Israeli book like no other. Not since Amos Elon’s The Israelis, Amos Oz’s In the Land of Israel, and Thomas Friedman’s From Beirut to Jerusalem, has there been such a powerful and comprehensive book written about the Jewish State and the Israeli Palestinian conflict. Ari Shavit is one of Israel’s leading columnists and writers, and the story he tells describes with great empathy the Palestinian tragedy and the century-long struggle between Jews and Arabs over the Holy Land. While Shavit is being brutally honest regarding the Zionist enterprise, he is also insightful, sensitive, and attentive to the dramatic life-stories of his fascinating heroes and heroines. The result is a unique nonfiction book that has the qualities of fine literature. It brings to life epic history without being a conventional history book. It deepens contemporary political understanding without being a one-sided political polemic. It is painful and provocative, yet colorful, emotional, life-loving, and inspiring. My Promised Land is the ultimate personal odyssey of a humanist exploring the startling biography of his tormented homeland, which is at the very center of global interest.” — Ehud Barak, former Prime Minister and Defense Minister of Israel.

Saturday, December 6, 6:00 p.m. Adult Ed Movie Night We will see The Lemon Tree. This is a story of a Palestinian widow who must defend her lemon tree field when a new Israeli Defense Minister moves next to her and threatens to have her lemon grove torn down. Director: Eran Riklis. Stars: Hiam Abbass, Rona Lipaz-Michael, Ali Suliman.

The next meeting of our Adult Education Committee is October 22 at 7:00 p.m. Please join us!

b'Shalom,
CJ Hauss, Adult Education Chair

L'Shanah Tova Sisterhood members and friends! A New Year is upon us! The Board of Sisterhood wishes you a wonderful year, a healthy year, a peaceful year.

If you are already a member of sisterhood, we hope that you will join us at the Paid Up Membership Dinner on October 23. The evening will start at 6:00p.m. with a half hour of snack and social time. A buffet dinner and speaker will follow at 6:30 p.m., provided by the Sisterhood for paid up members. If you haven't yet joined, you can mail a check to Sisterhood of Temple Sinai for $30 and send it to the Temple Office, or just let us know you are coming and pay at the door. Please RSVP by Wednesday, October 15, so that we can prepare for the evening by contacting Dot Revzon at sisterhood@sinaict.org or by calling the temple office, 860/561-1055.

The last weekend of October, on Sunday the 26th and Monday the 27th, will be Rummage Sale weekend! If you want to help sorting and preparing for the sale, contact us at sisterhood@sinaict.org. What we need most is donations, so please start to clean out the closets for clothing, for kitchen stuff, kid's toys, games, books, small electronic appliances. Bring them all to the temple on Sunday morning beginning at 8:00 a.m. and we will help bring them into the sale. If you can label bags of clothing as to male and female, it's a big help! We will again be collecting electronics both for sale and for recycle, so please mark your non-working electronics that you want recycled and we will put them in a separate pile. Come and shop from noon-3 p.m on Sunday, or from 10 a.m-1p.m on Monday. We have the best bargains!

On Tuesday, November 4, the Sisterhoods of Congregation Beth Israel and Temple Sinai will get together at Beth Israel at 6:00 p.m. for our annual joint dinner. Each year we have enjoyed each other's company and then done a Social Action project together. This year will be "A Vote and a Coat". The dinner will be on Election Day, so make sure you vote before coming, and then we will collect winter garments that can be donated to the community. Hats, gloves, scarves and, of course, kindly used coats will be collected so that others can be warm this winter. The menu for the evening will be salads and desserts by Temple Sinai and the main course by Congregation Beth Israel. Please call Dot at 860/561-1055 if you are coming, or email us at sisterhood@sinaict.org and let us know if you are bringing a dessert or a salad. We will need to let Beth Israel know how much to prepare, so RSVP by Tuesday, October 28.

It will be a busy time this autumn! And it will be a very good time, when we all get together at our Sisterhood events! See you soon!

About Our Circle of Giving Program

Temple Sinai, our special community thrives from the generosity of our members. Every members contributions, contribute to its well-being. Your support is the basis for the programs that enable study (Torah) worship (avodah) and acts of loving kindness (gemilut hasadim).
