Issue 5

Rabbi's Message

On March 17th of this year, elections will be held in Israel to elect a new Knesset to decide who will lead the next government. While we will not be able to participate in that election (although I'm certain many of us have strong opinions on what we would like to see happen), there is another election that we can participate in and that I urge you to participate ---the World Zionist Congress elections, whose polls opened January 13, 2015 and close April 30th, 2015.

The Congress, which takes place every five years, determines many important issues in the State of Israel, including how funds are distributed through the Jewish Agency for Israel and the Jewish National Fund. This is our opportunity as Reform Jews to have a significant say and to influence decision making. This election can help determine funding for Reform institutions in Israel and help fund programs and institutions that support a progressive, democratic, pluralistic, multi-cultural, multi-ethnic Israel.

To be eligible to vote you must register and vote online before April 30th. The easiest way to register and to vote is to go to our Reform Movement's website, www.arza.org, and cast your vote for ARZA-REPRESENTING REFORM JUDAISM.

To vote you must be 18 by June 30, 2015, Jewish and a citizen of the United States.

There is a fee to cover administrative costs of the election: $5 for those ages 18-29 and $10 for those who are 30 and older. This is an investment in the future of Reform Judaism in Israel.

These elections are the strongest way for US Reform Jews to promote and encourage the progressive ideals of social justice, equality and democracy in Israel and help build the kind of Jewish State we all know is possible. Please, go to the ARZA website and vote.

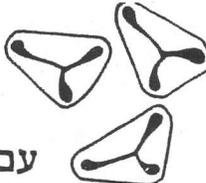

Rabbi Jeffrey Bennett

President's Message

Dear Temple Sinai Members,

As all of you wish as well, I hope that by the time you are reading this bulletin, we will be out of the deep freeze and promises of spring will come true! I would like to thank all of you for your patience and courtesy in dealing with the challenges of our driveway and parking lot. The amount of snow we have received combined with the severe cold has made snow removal and clearing of the driveway and parking lot very difficult. We do know that spring will come to Connecticut and hopefully these tough days will soon be a distant memory!

One of my goals as president has been to engage our membership in the Temple Sinai community to the greatest extent possible. This may include, but is not limited to, attending events, supporting our committees and groups, and attendance at services. I have frequently heard that members are not always aware of these events and special services and perhaps that is due to how we communicate. Many people have told me that they would rather receive our bulletin by mail rather than accessing it on line. To mail the bulletin first class to the whole membership in its current format would be costly. Therefore we need to make some changes in order to have everyone receive the bulletin by mail. On March 8th, Barbara Lederer, one of our past presidents, will facilitate a focus group to review our bulletin and identify possible changes. If you have not been asked to participate in this group, your input is definitely welcome. Please contact me by email with your suggestions, comments, and ideas as the more information we obtain, the better we can make the final product.

In addition to anticipating warmer weather, spring brings both Purim and Passover. These are both very special, unique holidays at Temple Sinai and I hope you will be able to attend and participate in both the Purim service on March 4th and our Seder on April 3rd. As always, complete details can be found in this bulletin.

And although May seems far off, please put these two dates in your calendar – May 3rd which is our annual Mitzvah Day. As Reform Jews, we consider Tikun Olam, repairing our world, as one of our most important values. Mitzvah Day is an opportunity to practice that value with other members in a fun, meaningful way. May 17th will be our annual meeting and the opportunity to hear a summary of the past year as well as plans for the future. As always we will approve a budget and slate of officers for the coming year. I hope you will be able to attend this as well.

B'Shalom,
Carol Benjamin, President

Religious School News

I am writing this article during a blast of arctic air, but know that SPRING is around the corner! March is a busy month with several programs in our Religious School. The month of Adar brings the festive holiday of Purim, which falls on Wednesday, March 4th. Religious School WILL be in session March 4th and we will be celebrating with our annual Purim service. We would like the religious school families to attend with their children that evening. Services begin at 6 p.m. followed by refreshments. The evening will end the same time as every Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Dress in costume and experience the Purim Service as we hear the Megillah. It is always fun to see the characters chosen by Rabbi Bennett and Cantor Gordon! The annual Purim Carnival will be held right after Sunday school on March 8th. Our Youth Group members work hard to make this carnival fun and festive for all ages! Please plan on supporting them with your presence.

On Friday, March 6th, the 6th graders will participate in the Shabbat Family Service which begins at 6 pm. The 6th graders will proudly wear the talitot that they designed! Please plan to come!

On Wednesday, March 11, the Israeli Teen Emissaries will be visiting our school and meeting our students.

On Sunday, March 29, JT Connect will bring a special JTCares program to Temple Sinai for teens in grades 8-12. The program will focus on the issue of immigration, our connections to it as Jews as well as our obligations to help those who are strangers in our land. The program will run from 1:00-4:00 p.m. at Temple Sinai and will include lunch, learning and a community service project. Community service certificates will be awarded at the end. Please let me know if you are interested in attending this wonderful program.

On Sunday, April 26 from 9-11:30 a.m., the 7th graders and parents will participate in an important, experiential workshop led by facilitators from the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) in a program called, "Confronting Anti-Semitism and Bullying." This program is mandatory for all 7th graders who should be accompanied by their parent(s).

Many thanks to our classroom window covering angels who so generously donated the window shades as an important security addition to our school. The shades allow students to see out but provides total privacy from the outside looking in. Todah Rabah ... We thank you so much!

As always, please contact me with any suggestions and/or concerns. I can be reached by cell phone or email.

Shalom,
Rena Citron, Director of Education
Renacitron@aol.com 860/614-2063

Our Religious School Angels

If you have come to the temple since mid-January, you will notice that new window coverings have been installed on the first floor classrooms. Many thanks (with hugs!) to our special couple who we call our Religious School Angels who provided these shades which enhances security for our classrooms. They look wonderful and we are so appreciative of your kindness!

Religious School Sells Bags

In February, Dave Chameides visited our Religious School and gave a wonderful presentation on protecting the environment. The program was in celebration of Tu B'Shevat, birthday of the Trees. As related to this program, the 4th graders began selling re-usable Chico Bags. A modest amount of bags were brought in and many were sold. The Religious School benefits from the sale profits of the bags. It is hoped that all remaining items will be sold soon. Currently there are a few 3-pack snack sets; a few original bags; two day packs and two duffel bags. Please contact Joyce in the Temple Office, 860/561-1055. She will give me the message and I will return your call.

Leslie Adler, 4th grade teacher

Social Action News

In times of great coldness we much remember all the blessings we have in our lives. Soon (although not as soon as we all hope) we will be complaining it is too hot. We are also lucky to have heated places to go at night, and a plethora of state resources to ensure we have winter necessities. Please keep tikkun olam in your mind as you walk through the snow covered streets to get into your car, and when sitting in your warm home.

Thank you to all who attended the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Shabbat service in January. It was a moving and uplifting service and we look forward to doing more collaborations with different religious groups in our area.

Throughout the month of February we have been collecting new toiletries for the homeless community that will be dispersed through the Charter Oak Cultural Center. We will be collecting these items through March, as the Sisterhood is generously offering their time to create gift bags during an event on March 22nd. (see Sisterhood's article for details).

The March Mitzvah of the Month is our annual childrens' book drive in honor of Dr. Seuss. Please bring your new and gently used books to the Temple to be distributed at the end of March. Please join us on March 13th at 7:00 p.m. at the charter Oak Cultural Center for their Monthly Read it and Sleep event. Families are welcome to come in pajamas and listen to stories with families from around the area. Please visit charteroakcenter.org for more information on this event and the numerous other events at the Cultural Center.

Mitzvah day and Foodshare's Walk Against Hunger will take place on Sunday, May 3rd. More information to follow. We encourage all members to come and be part of this great day! There are activities for all ages and abilities.

If you are interested in helping to cook and serve meals at the Mercy Shelter please see the note below. This is a wonderful way of doing good and giving back to the community.

Shalom,
Sarah Maltese, Social Action Chair

From the Religious Affairs Committee

We are excited to announce that Temple Sinai will be purchasing the new Mishkan Hanefesh, a new machzor (prayerbook) for the High Holy Days. Rabbi Bennett has done an extensive review and is excited to begin using the new machzor to start the year 5776 in September, 2015. In order to be prepared for the High Holy Days next year, we will be ordering the books in the next few months.

The Mishkan Hanefesh is being printed and sold as a set of two volumes, one for Rosh Hashanah and another for Yom Kippur. As was done when the current Mishkan T'filah machzors were purchased, we are inviting Temple Sinai members, family and friends to donate $36 per set. Each set you purchase can include commemorative bookplates noting your donation is dedicated to the memory of or in honor of a loved one or friends.

Please consider participating in this important fundraising event to offset the cost of the prayerbooks. A form is provided below that can be used to give us the required details for your dedication. Your generosity is appreciated.

On behalf of the Religious Affairs Committee,

Adult Education News

This year Adult Education has had three diverse programs. In November, we discussed the book, "My Promised Land" by Ari Shavit. In December we showed the movie, "The Lemon Tree" with a rousing discussion led by Cantor Gordon about the Israeli-Palestinian conflict as seen thru the eyes of a Palestinian widow and an Israeli cabinet member's wife. It's worth renting if you haven't seen it. This past month we had a very well attended panel discussion on "Caring for our Aging Parents" with guest speakers Ann Leabman and Penny Yellen from Jewish family Services, Joanne Foss from Aging Care and myself. The discussion could have gone on for another hour, so we are scheduling a follow up panel to cover topics around financial planning, housing and estate planning.

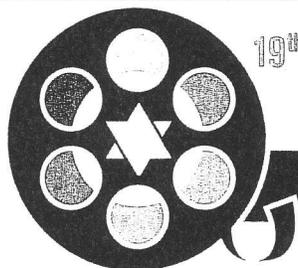

On May 29, we will end the year with a book discussion following the 7:30 p.m. service. The book is, "The Last Jew" by Noah Gordon.

We sent out a survey monkey (electronically) to the temple members and I will sort out the results and report next month on what our members preferences are in adult education programming. We hope to gain insight into what programs are interesting to you.

We welcome new members to the Adult Education Committee. Our next meeting is Monday, March 2 at 7:00 p.m. Please join us and give us your input into future topics.

Ellen Rothberg, Adult Education Chair

Sisterhood Speaks ...

What's happening in March? A lotand we want you there!

On Thursday, March 12 at 7:00 p.m., Sisterhood is excited to present Judy Dworin of the Judy Dworin Performance Project. Judy Dworin has been working on creating dance stories with the women of York Correctional Institute in Niantic, CT. Her work, In My Shoes, has been performed at Hartford Stage Company. Ms. Dworin will speak about her work and enhance her talk with video of the dance group. She will be joined by Suzi Jensen who is the daughter of a former York CI resident and presently works as her assistant at the Performance Project. Suzi will perform a selection from In My Shoes—a piece that presents issues of incarceration reflected through the lens of those who have walked the walk. This full production will be performed at Infinity Music Hall on Monday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m.

We are inviting all members of the temple to attend this meeting. We believe the subject is important and the opportunity to hear Judy Dworin and see a bit of her work is exciting. Coffee/tea and dessert will be served. We would appreciate RSVP to Joyce, 860/561-1055, or email: Sisterhood@sinaict.org so that we can prepare well for the evening.

Our second event for March is a get together with the Sisterhood of Kol Haverim. Kol Haverim is a URJ Reform Congregation in Glastonbury. Their Sisterhood president contacted us and asked if we wanted to become sister Sisterhoods. We invited them to join us at Temple Sinai on Sunday, March 22 at 6:30 p.m. We will get to know each other so we enjoy coffee, tea and dessert. We will then sort and bag the toiletries which our Temple Sinai Social Action Committee has been collecting and send them on to help the homeless served by the Charter Oak Cultural Center in Hartford. Please bring any sample/individual sized toiletries that you may have with you to include in our bags! Please let us know that you are coming in your response to your phone tree caller or email to Sisterhood@sinaict.org.

Finally, our third, big event in March will be the Rummage Sale. Spring Rummage is early this year, coming the last weekend of March on Sunday, March 29th and Monday, March 30th. We will be collecting your donations on Sunday morning from 8:00-11:30 a.m. Just park next to the building at the main door and we'll help bring the rummage in from your car! We are happy to receive donations of gently used clothing, books, toys, linens, small appliances, kitchen and other home goods. We even sell artwork at the Rummage Sale. Our doors open at noon on Sunday for the best bargains in Newington! Come and Support Temple Sinai through our Rummage Sale!

Dinner Chefs Wanted!

Sisterhood will be offering a Shabbat Dinner on Friday, April 17 following the 6:00 p.m. service. Last year over a dozen Sisterhood members met twice and had a great time prepping the meal! It's time to do it again! If you can measure, chop, stir or dish it all out in the end, we're looking for you! Please email-Sisterhood at sisterhood@sinaict.org to let us know you're interested. We'll find a good time to meet and have a good time-together making the Shabbat dinner!

SPRING RUMMAGE SALE

March 29 & 30

Time to do your spring cleanup! Donate your "used but not abused" items to the Sisterhood Rummage Sale on Sunday, March 29. We are accepting seasonal items (for spring & summer) including clothes, toys, small household items, bedding, etc. Electronics will be for sale only if in working order. Drop off your donations, clean, sorted and hung as appropriate on Sunday, March 29 from 8-11 a.m. Unfortunately Saturday drop offs cannot be accommodated. About Our Circle of Giving Program

Temple Sinai, our special community thrives from the generosity of our members. Every members contributions, contribute to its well-being. Your support is the basis for the programs that enable study (Torah) worship (avodah) and acts of loving kindness (gemilut hasadim).

Consistent with our Jewish tradition of members contributing in accordance with one's means, we ask our members to voluntarily increase their annual commitment to the temple. We instituted the "Circle of Giving" program in order to help ensure Temple Sinai's vitality and strength. Contact the Temple office for information on the Circle of Giving Program.
